for example, by asking what did your doctor tell you this medication was for?, the pharmacist can discern if the patient knows what condition is being treated why not to try it today? it's open on a tasting counter