desmopressin should be taken 1 hour before bed-time in combination with fluid restriction for 2 hours before bedtime and bladder emptying immediately before retiring (68).

on physical examination you note a nontender

on physical examination you note a nontender

on physical examination you note a nontender

on physical examination you note a nontender

on physical examination you note a nontender

on physical examination you note a nontender

on physical examination you note a nontender